

Evil vs. Truth

1. How does the portrayal of magic, in this particular instance, differ from what the Bible says about dark powers?
2. How do these differences shape the way magic is used and perceived by the characters involved? By the audience?
3. Does viewing this make you (even minutely) want to engage in this activity? Why or why not?
4. How could the devil be using this portrayal to trap us into evil?
