FALL B
Lesson 7

Helping Others

“Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Mark 12:33

We found that our kids often imitate what they see us doing. During mealtimes, we talk about how coworkers are organizing fundraisers for one of them that is receiving cancer treatment, or how a neighbor is recovering from a fall and other neighbors are taking turns bringing food to the family. Sometimes our kids share how their school is putting together cans of food for a holiday meal for families at school that need some help. As part of the conversation, comment These are good ways to do what Jesus said to do: “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Try This:

Decide as a family to join with others to help someone in need or choose a friend or neighbor and do something unexpected for them, like yard cleanup or free babysitting.
