Treating Others Fairly

“Love your neighbor as yourself.”

Mark 12:33

I've noticed that for my kids putting this verse into practice and treating others fairly is not always easy! Talk about this important concept by reading Mark 12:31 with your preteen and then taking this challenge: Take turns timing each other as you text “Love your neighbor as yourself” to a friend or family member. The fastest texter chooses others to answer these questions: How would you like people to treat you? When can you show that same action or treatment to someone who is different from you?

Try This:

Write out the sentence in text lingo and display it for all to see!
