FALL B
Lesson 9

Follow the Leader

“Obey the Lord.”

Deuteronomy 27:10

Isn't it amazing how kids never get tired of playing? And even better, play can be an effective way to teach your preschooler. When it's almost bedtime, play Follow the Leader. Lead your child around, doing silly things and bedtime routines. End with your child in bed. Open your Bible and say, I follow a Leader every day. My Leader is God. This is God's special Book. It's like a letter from Him. It says, “Obey the Lord.” I want to follow God all my life. Pray together that God will help you and your child obey Him.

Try This:

My kids like visuals that show how well they are doing. I add smiley faces or stickers to a small chart or we add a little more color to a coloring page whenever they do what I ask. I tell them that when they obey parents they obey the Lord.
