SPRING A
Lesson 8

Easier with Friends

Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: If one falls down, his friend can help him up.

Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

At a mealtime, I set up this scenario. We all took turns giving our responses: Imagine you are going on a trip. You can choose the destination and the way you would travel. Who would you take with you and why that person? When someone said they would go alone, I brought up various situations they might encounter. How would you handle that situation on your own? The result was that we realized how different people bring different benefits into our lives—and we enjoy the variety.

Try This:

I found some brainteasers online and printed them out to use at mealtimes. We have had fun trying to figure them out—and have discovered that it's a lot easier when we work together than by ourselves. A lot of things are easier to do when you have someone to help—like cleaning up the kitchen and doing dishes—and it goes faster when we all work together!
