Lesson 10

Wisdom Needed!

*“Give me wisdom and knowledge,
that I may lead this people.”*

2 Chronicles 1:10

I know I can't raise my kids alone. I often pray what Solomon asked of God: "Give me wisdom and knowledge." I can trust God to help me understand what my little ones need to become spiritual champions—I just have to remember to do that! Staying involved in our church, taking turns in the nursery, talking to the workers and other parents about kids and life—all of that really helps. When sick kids knock us out of circulation for a while, we stay in touch online or by text. I tell my toddler, Miss Dani helps you at church. She is my friend, too.

Try This:

Make Sunday mornings less hectic! Because we know the unexpected happens just before we leave, I prepare as much “no-brainer” stuff as I can on Saturday night. I pre-make breakfast things, choose my clothes, pack the diaper bag, lay out the kids' clothes—whatever it takes, because prep makes Sunday mornings a lot more pleasant!
