SPRING A
Lesson 1

Arms of Love

*“You are a gracious and compassionate
God . . . abounding in love.”*

Jonah 4:2

I love pictures of Jesus that show Him with arms wrapped around a lamb. It reminds me of how He loves me—and my toddler! I wrap my arms around my little one when he is hurt, tired, needs calming or whenever I want to express my love. And I try to remember to softly say, I love you. Jesus loves you.

Try This:

I taught my baby to “blow kisses of love.” It’s a fun routine that we do when we part—her special way to say goodbye to people she loves. At bedtime, I tell her, Jesus loves you, and we blow kisses of love back to Him!
