You Are Mine

Thomas said to Jesus, "My Lord and my God!"

See John 20:28

When my preschooler is older I want her to continue to follow Jesus because she loves Him and responds to Him, not just because I take her to church, read the Bible to her or pray with her. I use moments now to help her know His love for her and give her opportunities to talk to Him so that she senses His presence with her. I want her to have a foundation that will help her continue in a strong relationship with God when I'm not with her. We close our eyes and imagine Jesus standing in front of us when we pray. We tell Him, I love you, Jesus. You are my Lord.

Try This:

I sit my preschooler on my lap and say, "You are mine. Your nose is mine!" and I tug at his nose. "Your toes are mine!" and I tickle his toes. Then he does the same to me. I hug him tight and say, You belong to me and you belong to Jesus. We both love you!
