Lesson 4

All the Time

Jesus said, "I am with you always."

See Matthew 28:20

When my preschooler has a hard time with me leaving, I give him a special item to put in his pocket to remember me. One time it was a flat, oval stone that we had found together at the park. Another time it was a toy we often use to play together. I tell him to put it in his pocket and when he feels it or looks at it, he can remember me and that I will be back soon to get him. And when I leave him, I always try to tell him something we will do when I return for him. This gives him something to look forward to. I also remind him, Jesus is with you always.

Try This:

At bedtime, I lace my fingers together with my preschooler's fingers. We sing this song together to the tune of "Mary Had a Little Lamb": Jesus loves me, this I know; He is here; He is here. Jesus loves me, this I know; He is here with me.
