SUMMER A
Lesson 5

The Same as Yesterday

The Lord is faithful to all his promises and loving toward all he has made.

Psalm 145:13

As we make our plans for a summer day or for the week, I remind my kids, This is our intended plan. Sometimes things change. We will have to be flexible! When we get our hopes up for something, it's so disappointing when plans don't work out. Sometimes the change is weather-related or circumstances change. When we have to alter plans I say, I'm glad we can depend on God to always do what He has said He would. He never changes. We know He will never leave us. He promised to prepare a place for us. And one day, He will come back to take us all there because He loves us and we belong to Him.

Try This:

In our Bible reading journal, we have a section where we simply list God's characteristics and the Bible reference where we found that characteristic. During our Bible reading, the kids enjoy listening for these characteristics—it's almost like a treasure hunt! Then when we've got a pretty good list, we review it to remind ourselves of who God is.
