SUMMER A
Lesson 13

Better with Friends

Do not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

Galatians 6:9-10

It's easy to take the church nursery workers for granted, because they are always there, willing to help. But I try to remember that they are parents, too, with needs of their own—that helps me be aware during rushed Sunday mornings! Of course, I take my turn in the nursery, too, but from time to time, I also try to jot an encouraging note to one of them along with a little gift that I tuck into their child's diaper bag on Sunday. I send them a text when I think of them just to say how much they mean to our family. I pray for them, and let them know, I am thankful for the wonderful friends who make my life better!

Try This:

At the end of the day when it's time to clean up the house, my kids, our guests and I might have a Cleanup Parade. I turn on some fun music and we grab something with each hand and sometimes put something on our heads, too, then march in a line to put those things away. I say, We have fun when we work together! I'm glad God gave us friends.
