WINTER A
Lesson 2

Born for a Purpose

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever.

Psalm 107:1

I can never get through the Christmas season without thinking that the purpose of Jesus' birth was to show His love for us through His death and resurrection. I want my children to grow up knowing Jesus loves them so intensely that He is willing to give His all. I hug them close and tell them, even though they are little now, Jesus is special. You are special, so that they begin to develop the concept of Jesus' immense love for them.

Try This:

Don't forget to schedule in naps, meals, and snacks during the busy holiday season—for your kids and for you! It will keep everybody running at their best during hectic days with extra activities. I keep little containers in the cupboard packed with raisins and low-sugar cereal to tuck in our diaper bag as we head out to run errands.
