Taking Care of Family

“This is what the Lord Almighty says: ‘Administer true justice; show mercy and compassion to one another.’”

Zechariah 7:9

Friday night has been our traditional Family Night. Over the years, we have played board games and tag; made popcorn, pizza, and microwave s’mores; watched movies; enjoyed local parks and playgrounds; gone swimming, sledding, and biking; and done many more fun things together. Our kids have sometimes invited friends to join us. Over the years, we have heard our kids’ friends say they love our Family Night because their families never do anything like this. We would let our kids know that they were showing God’s love to their friends when they shared our family time with them.

Try This:

Being on the go so much, I have to be intentional about connecting with my kids. Some evenings, we may sit in the living room for “You Do, I Do.” We take turns combing each other’s hair, scratching backs, or rubbing feet. Everyone has a preferred form of touch. When there are more than two of us, we line up so I might be getting my hair played with while I scratch my son’s back, while he rubs his sister’s feet. After a few minutes, we rotate so everyone gets a turn to be cared for. It’s a good time for relaxing and talking while doing something nice for each other—can morph right into some positive chat and snuggling time!
