WINTER B
Lesson 4

Trusting Jesus

“He will be called . . . Everlasting Father.”

Isaiah 9:6

During supper sometime, go around the table and take turns naming things that have lasted for a while, each person trying to name something that has lasted longer than what was last mentioned. Will any of them last forever? What kinds of things are everlasting? I tell my children, As much as I love and care about you, I can’t be there always. But I trust Jesus, the Everlasting Father, to always help you. He is the only One who has the power and strength.

Try This:

We teach our kids the value of alone time and together time. We schedule a quiet time every day with a book or music to help them develop a habit for personal devotional time with God.
