Getting Ready for Christmas

*“My heart leaps for joy and
I will give thanks to him in song.”*

Psalm 28:7

Do you remember the excitement you felt when you were preparing for the birth of your child? As the Christmas season begins, help your child prepare for the joyful celebration of Jesus' birth. I like to begin early in our home so we can spend time thinking about Jesus throughout the entire month. One of the first decorations we get out is a fabric nativity scene that little ones can handle without breaking. I say, Jesus was a baby. At Christmas, it's His birthday. We're so glad Jesus was born!

Try This:

Every year I like to plan a birthday party for Jesus with my young children. We invite a few young friends and their parents to share a few Christmas cookies and a Christmas storybook together. We set the date early in December before our holiday schedule gets too hectic.
