Lesson 12

Making Wrongs Right

*“Create in me a pure heart, O God,
and renew a steadfast spirit within me.”*

Psalm 51:10

When someone does something wrong in our family, it often affects everyone. We are so closely connected that one's actions affect the others. Sometimes there's sadness or anger. Sometimes a sibling will defend the wrongdoer or extend sympathy. Sometimes the consequences affect us all. We pray for each other before meals and at bedtime for strength and help from God. And we rejoice when wrong things are made right. We tell our kids all the time, but especially in these times, We are on your side and we want to see you make good choices that please God.

Try This:

When my child has done something wrong and we've talked about it, I give him some time to make things right. If he doesn't seem to be moving in that direction, I'll ask him if he would like some ideas on how to do that.
