Getting to the Church on Time

*“Worship the Lord with gladness;
come before him with joyful songs.”*

Psalm 100:2.

Gathering up the diaper bag, the car keys, the snacks—and the baby—can sometimes make getting to church a stressful time! But I wanted my kids to grow up and feel a part of our church family. I soon realized that being consistent from the time they were young was really important. Even when we missed a few weeks, it took time to get into the routine again. It helped when I would start the day off by saying, Today we’re going to church together. Let’s get ready to see our friends and learn about Jesus. When Jesus was little, His mom and dad took Him to church, too.

Try This:

It’s normal for your little one to be a little sad at being left. Make your goodbyes short and sweet with a promise to come back soon. At first, you may want to return after a short time away and then gradually increase the time.
