Valentine's Day Surprises

"Let us love with actions and in truth."

See 1 John 3:18

It's fun to create surprises your little one can be in on. Let your child help you make a Valentine's Day surprise for others in the family. Put heart stickers on a paper heart shape or hang streamers, or make an "I love you" greeting card. Practice a song to sing, like this one to the tune of "The Farmer in the Dell": I love my family so. I love my family so. God gave me a family. I love my family so. Sing it again and replace "my family" with family members' names.

Try This:

Use a heart-shaped cookie cutter to cut out hearts from bread or cheese slices. Give these edible Valentines to your child, and say, I love you. If your child is old enough, let him or her cut one out for you.
