WINTER B
Lesson 7

Teachable Moments

“Jesus is the Son of God.”

See John 1:34

There is so much about Jesus I want my child to know and understand. Over the years, I’ve realized that one of the most important ways I can help my child grow in faith is by being a good listener. When I’m listening and observing her play with others, I gain helpful insight into her thoughts and feelings. Then I can be ready with questions and comments to help my child come to know Jesus and how He wants us to live. At bedtime I might say, I saw that you were a good friend today. Taking turns is a way to show that you love Jesus.

Try This:

I like to say the words of a Bible verse with my child. We add a motion for each word—and as we say the words and do the motions, the Bible verse sticks with us!
